Missed Mail Deliveries Prompt No Parking Zone

SAN ANTONIO HEIGHTS – Concerns about missed mail deliveries prompted the Board of Supervisors to adopt a no parking zone in front of mailboxes in this unincorporated community Tuesday.

Residents contacted Board of Supervisors Chairman Paul Biane and reported that vehicles parked in front of several mailboxes on 25th Street were interfering with mail deliveries by the U.S. Postal Service. Biane represents the San Antonio Heights community as the County's Second District Supervisor.

"Residents were frustrated about not getting their mail deliveries because of cars parked in front of their mailboxes, so they contacted my office to see if the County could help resolve the issue," Biane said.

The San Bernardino County Department of Public Works investigated and recommended prohibiting parking on the north side of 25th Street in front of the mailboxes. About 50 feet of curbing will be painted red to designate the no-parking zone.

Parking violations in San Antonio Heights can be reported to the California Highway Patrol by calling (909) 980-3994.
